

GROUP PROCEEDING SUMMARY STATEMENT
Ross Andrew Gawler v FleetPartners Group Limited

Case: S ECI 2023 05208
Filed on: 06/11/2023 01:48 PM

Supreme Court of Victoria

1. What is a class action?

Also known as a group proceeding or a representative proceeding, a class action is a case brought by a lead representative on their own behalf and on behalf of seven or more people who have claims against the defendant that arise out of similar circumstances. A class action is an efficient way for the Court to resolve common questions of fact or law in a dispute.

2. Who is the defendant in this class action, and what is the claim about?

The claim is against FleetPartners Group Ltd (ASX:FPR, ACN 131 557 901), formerly Eclix Group Ltd (ASX:ECX). The claim concerns information available to investors who acquired an interest in ECX shares over the period from 8 November 2017 to 10:35 am on 20 March 2019 (inclusive) (claim period).

During the claim period, ECX made statements to the market of investors and potential investors in ECX as to the financial performance of the company in FY17 and FY18 and provided guidance as to its future earnings in FY18 and FY19. ECX subsequently withdrew, revised or restated that information, including by:

- (a) on 20 March 2019, issuing an ASX release withdrawing its FY19 guidance and indicating that a proposed merger between ECX and a competitor, McMillan Shakespeare, was unlikely to proceed; and
- (b) on 13 November 2019, ECX restating its FY17 and FY18 financial results, including reducing trade receivables in its "Right2Drive" business by $9.5 million.

The claim alleges that ECX breached relevant provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), the Australian Securities and Investment Commission Act 2001 (Cth) and the Australian Consumer Law by making misleading representations and further, failed to comply with its continuous disclosure obligations as an ASX-listed company in relation to the information it provided (and/or failed to provide) to investors during the claim period about its financial performance, future earnings guidance, and its systems and processes for recognising and forecasting revenue.

The class action alleges that ECX's share price was inflated by its disclosure failures and that as result group members suffered loss and damage. Alternatively, the class action alleges that some group members would not have purchased shares in ECX had the alleged wrongdoing not occurred.

3. Who is a group member in the class action?

You are automatically a group member if, between 8 November 2017 and 10:35 am on 20 March 2019 inclusive, you acquired an interest in ordinary shares in ECX.

If you do not wish to participate in the class action, there will be an opportunity for you to opt out of the class action in the future.

If you do wish to participate in the class action and be entitled to receive compensation if the class action is successful, you will be required to formally register your claim at a future time.

You will receive a notice or notices about the opt out process and the registration process which explain these options and the steps you are required to take at a future date.

4. Who is the representative plaintiff and what are their roles and responsibilities?

The representative plaintiff in the class action is Dr Ross Andrew Gawler. The representative plaintiff's role is to represent the claims of the group members and provide instructions to PFM regarding the conduct of the case. The representative plaintiff may give evidence during the proceeding. In hearing the representative plaintiff's case, the Court will consider and determine questions of fact and/or law that are common to all group members.

5. Who is conducting this class action?

Phi Finney McDonald (PFM) acts for the representative plaintiff. PFM is a leading class action law firm with offices in Melbourne, Sydney and London.

6. How is the class action funded?

The lead plaintiff intends to apply for a Group Costs Order (GCO) pursuant to s 33ZDA of the Supreme Court Act 1986 (Vic) at an early stage in the class action. The effect of a Group Costs Order if made, is that:

- (a) If the case is successful – meaning that there is a settlement or the case succeeds at trial and damages are awarded by the Court – then, subject to further order, the legal costs payable to PFM will be calculated as a percentage of any settlement sum or damages award (up to the conclusion of the trial of common issues) rather than on a time-billed basis. The Court will determine the percentage fixed by the GCO and is required to approve it as fair and reasonable as part of approving any resolution of the proceeding.
- (b) PFM (as the law practice representing the representative plaintiff and in respect of which the GCO is made) will be liable to pay any costs payable to the defendant in the proceeding (known as “adverse costs”). PFM will also carry or pay the representative plaintiff's legal costs and disbursements until the conclusion of the trial of common issues.
- (c) Liability for payment of the percentage fixed by the GCO would be shared among the representative plaintiff and all group members. That means that an amount representing the percentage fixed by that GCO would be deducted from any settlement sum or damages award and paid to PFM, before any distribution to the representative plaintiff and group members.

7. What costs are involved?

The representative plaintiff and group members will not be asked to pay any upfront or out-of-pocket costs. Costs will only be payable in the event of a successful outcome and will be subject to Court approval. Legal costs and any other amounts approved by the Court and payable to PFM will be deducted from, and will not exceed, any compensation that group members are entitled to receive.

If a successful outcome is not achieved in the class action, the representative plaintiff and group members will not be required to pay any costs or any other amounts to PFM. This means that you will not be out of pocket by participating in the class action regardless of whether the case is successful or unsuccessful.

8. Are there any overlapping class actions?

As at the time of filing this proceeding, there are no overlapping class actions filed against the defendant.

9. Who can I contact to get further information?

Group members may contact PFM about the class action, at no out-of-pocket cost, via:
